Welcome to Natchez

It's What You Love about the South

When we say, "Natchez is what you love about the South," you'll understand exactly what we mean once you immerse yourself in the rich, vibrant history of our charming city on the Mississippi River.

For our visitors, you won't find amusement parks, thrill rides or tourist traps. Here, we like to think of ourselves as a destination for those who want to get away from it all. But, do not be misled; we have more events, festivals and things to do than you can imagine. Natchez is sure to have something for everyone, whether you're looking for outdoor activities, spa retreats, dynamic nightlife, local events, arts and culture or a step back in time.

For meeting planners, it means a state-of-the-art convention center, expert services and quality hotel meeting rooms you'd expect from a larger city, but with the hospitality and excellent pricing of a small town. Book a site inspection and let us show you around.

For couples seeking a classic, Southern-style wedding, Natchez has the Southern charm, historic churches, great reception venues, and impressive hotels and inns to create an enchanting backdrop for your perfect day.

The Natchez Convention & Visitor Bureau is your official resource for meetings, weddings, vacations and group tours. Located inside the Natchez Visitor Center, we are here to answer all your questions with insider information, from the best views of the Mississippi River to the best biscuits in the South. Give us a call, or order a free visitor guide to start planning your trip today. Y'all Come - and see for yourself.
